

Program Evaluation Questions for Group Discussion

1. Have you been writing the JVI office?
2. Have you found the JVI office correspondence helpful? (e.g. In-The-Field, community letters, email responses, e-flections, Bi-Monthly reflection mailers)
3. Have you found site visits worthwhile?
4. Please offer your reflections on the role of in-country coordinator and/or the local Jesuit support person and community?
5. Beyond your ICC/ Jesuit Support people, who are others who do/could support you?
6. Do you feel adequately informed about the responsibilities/guidelines of a Jesuit Volunteer?
9. How do you use the materials the office sends to you? What has been helpful?
10. Do you use the 12 Spirituality Night booklet?
11. What other types of materials/themes would you like to see in mailers?
12. What formation materials (e.g. reflection nights, letters, suggestions for community nights, suggestions for community letters, reo diso, schedule changes,) would you like to see from the JVI office?
13. Do you have any suggestions for language training for new JVs?

New JV arrival
Suggested arrival date for future JVs
Maximum possible number of JVs for your site

Community Questions

*Please choose the answer that best answers the question. Space has been left for comments.
Please answer as a community.*

How are your retreats structured?

- We plan every minute
- We build in free time and focused time
- We plan to hang out and relax
- We show up at the site and go from there
- We don't have retreats

How does your community gather?

- We get together weekly as a full community
- We eat meals together regularly
- We see each other in the hall
- We spend hours at night chatting about the "four components"
- We don't gather as a community

How are outside influences incorporated into your community?

- We regularly invite guests to our gatherings
- We talked about having someone over once
- Our house is grand central station for non JVs
- We've had a few guest speakers
- We never thought about it

How is spirituality shared in your community?

- We pray together daily and go to mass together often
- We have weekly spiritual meetings
- We keep our faith lives to ourselves
- We're still figuring out what a "spirituality night" is supposed to be
- We don't share spirituality

When you do get together for spiritual purposes, how is the time used?

- We plan the meeting from beginning to end
- The structure varies widely from meeting to meeting
- We let God work in his own time

- Meetings are typically quiet and reflective
- We don't get together for spiritual purposes

How do you incorporate outside influences into your spiritual meetings?

- We regularly invite guests to our gatherings
- We talked about having someone over once
- Our meetings are filled with spiritual gurus
- We've had a few guests
- I told you, we don't "do" spirituality

How do you incorporate the content of JVI mailers into your lives?

- We leave them on the table for everyone to read
- We use the materials often to plan spirituality/community nights
- We look at In The Field and throw the rest away
- We get mailers from JVI?
- We don't.

How do you incorporate the 12 Spirituality Nights booklet into your community?

- What booklet?
- We use it all the time to plan spirituality nights.
- I think I've seen it around the house.
- We've used it a few times to plan spirituality nights
- We don't use it t all.

How would you describe your daily workload?

- I'm usually pretty busy
- I get bored easily
- I think there is a good balance between work and relaxation
- I work hard but I have ample free time
- Sorry, can't talk...gotta work. Work, work, work!

How well prepared are you to complete your job requirements?

- I have no idea what I'm doing
- I've got this job down cold
- Sometimes the job is a challenge, but I'm learning
- I think I'm prepared, but I'm never really sure
- I feel that my site places unrealistic expectations on JVs

How has your community contacted the JVI office?

- Only when necessary and even then, reluctantly
- We feel like we're in the Big Brother house
- We enjoy monthly contact with the office
- We're in weekly contact with the office

- We don't have contact with the office

How helpful is your contact with the JVI office?

- It has been more hurt than help
- The staff goes out of their way to respond when needed
- Contact has been helpful and directive
- Contact could be more helpful/meaningful
- What contact?

Are your work sites worthwhile placements for future JVs?

What safety/ security issues have you dealt with at your JVI house this year?

What safety/ security issues have you dealt with at work/ travel/ outside of your JVI house this year?

Has your experience and commitment met the overall philosophy of JVI as expressed in the four components?

Are there any particular JVI policies that need to be discussed?