

Seasons of change
Seasons of sunlight
Seasons of darkness clouded with rain

Seasons of hope
Seasons of starlight
Seasons of light begin new again

May you live, love and trust in our God, Sustainer-Redeemer
All the days of your life

Refrain

May you walk now in beauty and love
May beauty surround you
May beauty walk under your feet

Refrain

Should you pass through raging waters
I am with you
Should you walk through fire
You'll not be harmed for I am Yahweh the Holy One
You are precious in my eyes and I love you!

Refrain
