

Good Shepherd Volunteers
End of Year Site Evaluation 2005

Please take some time to share feedback with us. Feel free to type your responses and e-mail the form to the GSV Office at GSV@goodshepherds.org. Or, fax your responses to Mary Helldorfer's attention at (212) 979-8604. Please return the evaluation no later than July 15, 2005.

Agency and/or Program Name:

Evaluator's Name:

Volunteer Information (This information will be helpful for grant-writing purposes)

1. Please estimate the number of people or clients your Good Shepherd Volunteer(s) is directly involved with in the course of the year.

_____ children _____ adults _____ families

2. Please briefly describe the population served and the nature of the volunteer's contact with them.

3. What would your agency have to pay an employee, in salary and benefits, in lieu of a GSV?

_____ Salary
_____ Benefits
_____ Total

Evaluation

1. Please tell us what is helpful/not helpful about the GSV staff site visit to your agency/program for mid-year evaluations of the volunteer(s). Do you have any suggestions for how we can improve this process?

2. Are the communications and explanations about the Americorps Educational Award and the hours necessary for the volunteer to be granted the award adequate? If not, what improvements could be made?

3. As a supervisor and/or agency director, how do/don't the GSV retreats (on the four themes of the GSV program: community, social justice and simplicity, and spirituality) complement the ongoing work of the volunteer in your program?

4. Do you have suggestions for enhancing or improving the volunteer interview and selection process?

5. Do you refer to the GSV Domestic Handbook and/or the GSV Site Supervisor or Financial Guidelines throughout the year? If so, how have these documents helpful?

6. Please share any other comments, concerns, or feedback for the GSV staff.

Thank you for taking the time to respond! We appreciate it!