

JOIN THE MOVEMENT: SPONSOR THE SHIFT TO SOLIDARITY

The 2025 National Conference on Faith-Based Service will focus on moving beyond acts of charity toward building authentic relationships rooted in solidarity.

With the theme A Moment for Movement: From Service to Solidarity, we invite participants to engage in meaningful discussions and actions inspired by faith and justice. The conference will provide opportunities to explore how solidarity with marginalized communities can transform both individuals and broader society.

Why Sponsor?

By sponsoring this conference, you will play a crucial role in fostering faith-based service that promotes justice and equity. This event will bring together leaders in the field, volunteers, and advocates at the intersection of faith and social justice. Your partnership helps support transformative conversations and actionable strategies that can create lasting impacts within communities.

Audience Reach

The 2025 conference will attract a diverse audience, including:

- CVN Members (staff or other representatives)
- Current Volunteers
- Members of communities that our members serve
- Young adults (30 years old and under)
- Individuals passionate about the intersection of faith and justice

Your sponsorship will provide your organization with visibility to a network committed to faith-based service and social change.
